MadhuVana

The Sweet Symphony of Nature

Where Land, Water, and Wisdom Meet

Nestled near Maddur, MadhuVana is a 17-acre sanctuary where ponds shimmer, trees whisper their stories, and soil thrives under the care of flowing water channels.

Home to 250+ native trees and 150+ rare and endangered species, this living landscape is shaped for those who seek balance, belonging, and quiet joy.

A Landscape Crafted With Care

- Scenic Pond & Lake - gentle spaces for reflection and family moments.
- Eco-friendly Gazebo - a shelter of breeze, wood, and calm
- Tree House Among the Branches – a playful retreat for all ages.
- Natural Kids' Play Area – where childhood meets earth.
- Walking Pathways – slow trails through greenery and birdsong.
- Cozy Sustainable Cottage – a simple, earthy refuge shaped by nature

Sacred Groves Rooted in Ancient Tradition

- VinayakaVana – 21 sacred plants encircling a serene Ganesha shrine.
- Shiva Panchayatana Vana – five divine energies in one meditative grove.
- NakshatraVana – 27 trees, each a lunar constellation.
- SaraswatiVana – a peaceful space for learning and creativity.

A Farm That Lives, Breathes, and Nourishes

- Fruit-bearing orchards.
- Organic herbal gardens.
- Conservation of rare and endangered tree species.
- Community planting initiatives that bring hearts and hands together

MadhuVana is a regenerative ecosystem where every seed is planted with care and every tree grows with purpose.

Your Living Land, Your Legacy

Farm spaces begin from 8,000 sq. ft., thoughtfully placed within this Biodiversity-rich landscape.
Here, you don't just own land—you become part of a living ecosystem that grows with you and beyond you.

Come, Walk the Land

Let the forest breeze greet you.
Let the water guide your thoughts.
Let MadhuVana show you a life that feels whole.
